Transportation and parking: Visit <https://landakongreso.org/en/travel/> for information about transportation. Parking is available near the residence hall for free.

Meals and lodging:

Meals include breakfast, lunch, and dinner on Saturday and Sunday (including the banquet) and breakfast on Monday. Each meal on Friday can be paid for separately. Attendees cannot stay on campus without paying for meals. There are some restaurants near the campus.

Lodging is in 1-, 2-, or 3-person dorm rooms divided into men's and women's sections. The university will provide bedsheets, bath towels, and hand towels. Handicap-access rooms are available. The dormitory does not have an elevator; if you have a problem climbing stairs, please indicate that below. The bathrooms are communal; if you need a private bathroom for medical reasons, please indicate that below. The meeting rooms are nearby. Wi-Fi is available in all rooms and throughout the campus.

It is possible to stay three nights (Friday night till Monday morning) or four (Thursday night till Monday morning). The Board of Directors will arrive on Thursday and stay an extra night to attend the board meeting on Friday. The congress begins with the Interkona Vespero (Evening Get-together) at 7 PM on Friday and ends Monday at noon.
